

1. Start at the library's website (www.bradley.edu/library), scroll down and click on “My Library Account.”

2. Enter your BUnet ID information and login.

3. Click on loans. You should find all of your loans from Bradley as well as the I-Share institutions. If renewal is available, you only need to click on Renew beside your loan.

The screenshot shows a library account interface titled "My Library Card". At the top, there are navigation tabs: OVERVIEW, LOANS (circled in red), REQUESTS, FINES + FEES, BLOCKS + MESSAGES, and PERSONAL DETAILS. On the left side, there is a list of institutions: All Institutions (dropdown), Black Hawk College, Bradley University (BRA) —Peoria, IL, College of DuPage, and Chicago State University. The main content area is titled "Loans" and shows a list of 10 loans. The first loan is highlighted with a blue bar and contains the text "Name of book". To its right, there is a "Due:" field with a "Date" label, a "Pick up: Cullom-Davis Libr..." field, and a "RENEW" button (circled in red) with a dropdown arrow. The second, third, and fourth loans are also visible, each with a "RENEW" button. The interface is clean and modern, with a light gray background and blue accents.
